CONCORDIA FRIENDS HONOUR FORMER PLAYERS

The Friends of Concordia Hockey recently honoured nine former outstanding performers from past Sir George Williams, Loyola and Concordia hockey teams in ceremonies held in the Athletics Complex arena.

Those recognized for their contributions to their respective teams included Alex Matthew, former Sir George All-Star now teaching at John Rennie High School; Larry Carriere former Loyola team captain who played seven seasons in the N.H.L. with Buffalo and Vancouver; Ed Meagher long-time coach at Loyola High School and member of the Loyola Sports Hall of Fame; Dr. Jack McMullan, Loyola Sports Hall of Fame member who played with the Warriors; Bernie Wolfe All-Star goaltender from Sir George, who played five N.H.L. seasons with the Washington Capitals; Conchie Broden, former Loyola Warrior who played with the 1957 Stanley Cup Champion Montreal Canadiens; Dr. Bob Brodrick Hall of Famer who played with Loyola and the Montreal Senior Royals; Mike Lowe the Loyola All-time leading scorer and George Lackenbauer, a former Loyola All-Star defenseman.

The Friends of Concordia Hockey will select a number of former players and coaches annually to be added to the Concordia Hockey Honour Roll. The event is part of a re-union weekend which includes a reception and a Loyola - Sir George (Concordia) hockey game. Over 50 alumnists attended this year's festivities.
